In addition to the caption of case, the SC Tariff Bureau would also like to go on file stating if PODS Inc. is setting up the intrastate relocation themselves and not the customer whether by transporting the HHG's themselves or via another transportation company, the shipment must be regulated according to the PSC rules and regulations governing the transportation of HHG's intrastate. If the relocation of containerized HHG shipments is de-regulated as Mr. Popowski has requested, the best interest of the consumer will not be met. If a dispute were to arise during this process, the consumer will have no protection and be at the mercy of the entities involved.
